

Iwakuni Air Force Base in Japan are well known as sites where deluded GI's pass guns to the Red Army. The "freedom" for GI's to enter such CIA safehouses has been advocated by Rockefeller handmaiden Congresswoman Bella Abzug in the pages of the only sizeable English-language Japanese "left" magazine, AMPO — on whose editorial board Takahashi sits.

The Red Army also works in concert with notorious CIA counter gangs such as the IRA in Britain, the West German Baader-Meinhoff, and the "Turkish People's Liberation Front," according to the DST.

Televised Terror

The Red Army's first front-page coverage for terrorism came in late 1972, when a series of bank and police gun-cache robberies became the excuse for a massive search-and-seal operation. More than 300,000 working-class flats in Tokyo were searched and dozens of leftists were incarcerated or interrogated. Five Red Army members miraculously escaped to a ski lodge high in the snowbound Japanese Alps, taking with them a local housewife as hostage. For a month, the press covered almost nothing else, and the event climaxed in a nationally televised 218-hour gun battle with police, in which all five Red Army members were arrested, unscathed.

After police extracted confessions of revolutionary guilt, one Red Army leader hanged himself. The rest then began to spill the hideous tale of the kangaroo courts and torture-murders of 14 of their own comrades. The Japanese police (who were organized by the G-2 Intelligence Division of the Office of Strategic Services before the Korean War) dutifully went out to dig in the snow at the designated site and found the bodies in various stages of mutilation and decay — all of which were again televised nationally. The crimes cited by the Red Army members were obviously ridiculous "breaches of discipline" such as the desire to feed one member's freezing baby girl or too-persistent begging for a Kleenex.

Subsequent Red Army operations exhibited the same mindless violence of the sort the CIA programs — the Lod Airport massacre of 1973 and the ludicrous "attack" on the Singapore oil refinery earlier this year. Having failed in the latter operation to terrify anyone into making concessions, the Red Army moved to take over the Japanese Embassy in Kuwait, forcing pompous Prime Minister Tanaka to stand on his honor by sending a special Japan Airlines flight to Singapore and then around the world.

Press Buildup for Terror

The Japanese press is now trying to build up the Red Army as "possessing unexpectedly great ability for action." Such obvious psychotics, however, are completely incapable of carrying out coordinated, international terrorist operations without CIA direction. This is made clear by orders from Red Army Beirut leader Shigenobu for a "general uprising" in the near future. The orders were found in the apartment of Miss Yamamoto, along with addresses of over 50 Red Army members stationed throughout Europe.

This weekend's terrorism, including bombings in Paris and Madrid, was capped by the press' "prediction" that the IRA, Black September, and the Japanese Red Army would join together in a united front for terrorism. This is exactly what the CIA has in mind for all their laboratory-spawned terrorist groups; and the press, as usual, is preparing the way for future terrorist blood baths.

Nazi Colonel Spreads CIA Terror to Spain

Sept. 23 (IPS) — In the worst terrorist incident in Spain since last December's assassination of Prime Minister C. Blanco, a bomb was detonated in a Madrid cafe last weekend at the height of the afternoon rush hour. The blast killed 12 and wounded 70.

The Madrid Police Chief is placing the blame conveniently on the Basque separatist group the ETA, a counter gang whose CIA infiltration was assigned to the top operator of neo-Nazi terrorists, ex-SS Colonel Otto Skorzeny.

The ETA, which previously confined itself to bombing police stations and government buildings, is being mobilized for the first time as an anti-working class terror force striking in Madrid's equivalent of Times Square.
