

A call for a worldwide campaign to kill Satan

by Helga Zepp-LaRouche

This keynote speech to the Rome conference was delivered on Jan. 19.

Dear friends of the Schiller Institute!

This tribunal is urgently necessary to begin a process of re-establishing truth and natural law to govern world affairs. We are holding this tribunal in the tradition and spirit of the civil rights movement and Dr. Martin Luther King, in order to show, over the course of two days, that it is not Lyndon LaRouche who is guilty, who has been convicted in an unprecedented political show-trial, but exactly those who have harassed him and his organization and who are the ones behind the legal attack.

You will see, that it is a combination of Bolsheviks, Communists, and liberal bankers in the West, and—which to some of you may come as a surprise, for others not—that actually Satanism as a political factor in world politics is part of the problem we are dealing with.

It is more than urgent to reverse what could be called the Zeitgeist, the spirit of our times, because it is this Zeitgeist that has thrown the world into an apocalyptic crisis, and the entirety of human civilization threatens to go under if these policies are not reversed. Man cannot continuously violate the order of creation. Behind this present misery in the world, is at best the indifference of the leading institutions, and more often the intent to cause this misery.

The deliberate destruction of nations

If you just look at the world in totality today, you find tremendous suffering, a tremendous amount of actual killing of human beings. The most blatant situation is without any question the condition of the developing sector, where not long ahead into the future, the life and very existence of 3 billion people is threatened. If you look at the African continent, it is more than you can take into your heart, more tears than you can possibly cry. This continent is dying before the eyes of the world public, and everybody—the governments, the parties, the politicians, and the average citizen—knows that the African continent is condemned to death and nobody does anything about it. For me, this is one of the yardsticks of the moral senility and moral decay of our world. There are reports known to governments in Western Europe and the United States—which we also know, and we know that they know—that there is one country for sure in Africa, where 60% of all people are already infected with AIDS, and if you take the doubling rate of eight months, and if you take the increase in infection rate as the ratio increases, you can actually say, that this country is as good as dead right now!

Some people enjoy that. They look at it with great pleasure and say, finally these inferior people are dying out!

There are some areas, some regions in Africa, where civilization has collapsed up to the point that villages don't exist any longer, only gangs of men who, because they are physically still in a position to do so, have banded together and are looting whatever is left for food. The entire continent is dominated by vicious hunger, where babies only are born to die a couple of days or weeks later from a disease which finds ever new multitudes, and from a locust plague which was completely avoidable and known to the international financial institutions and world organizations and could have been stopped a long time ago.

It's even worse than that! These financial institutions have written off Africa! They have written off most of the developing countries. They deliberately use the food weapon; i.e., they have cut down world agricultural production in order to be able to control nations and peoples with this food weapon. They are fully aware that, when the bankers made the decision during the last year to cut off Africa entirely from credit, that this was as good as condemning 450 million people on this continent to death!

If you look at the IMF conditionalities, this is also a case in which people fully know what the implication would be; it would mean to reduce the number of people, and you look at countries which are the worst, like Bangladesh or certain parts of Brazil, and you see, as an immediate consequence of financial policies, starvation and death.

But this is only one area of the problem. Another one is the spread of the international drug traffic and the associated narco-terrorism, which is not only destroying the minds and souls of our children and many other people, but in countries like Colombia or Peru, where the drug traffic and the terrorism is run both by the CIA and the KGB, the strength of the drug-traffickers and the guerrilla forces has already become so great that they are threatening the authority of the government and the Army. So, the condition that is prevailing is complete lawlessness and the terror of the fittest.

Communist system is collapsing

There is also tremendous suffering and hardship, hopelessness and oppression in the Communist dictatorships, where again most of these countries are hit by savage food shortages. Maybe the worst hit country in the Communist bloc is Romania, where the cruel fact is, that babies are dying at such a rate, that they are only registered as born eight weeks after their date of birth, because it is not worth the paperwork for the Communists to register them earlier.

The entire East bloc is at a point of social unrest because of food shortages. Yugoslavia is facing a civil war; people are hungry and this is fueling ethnic conflicts. In Armenia, contrary to the illusions of the fools in the West who jumped in a big hypocritical move to help the victims of the earthquake, the Red Army has shamelessly used this situation to conduct genocide against the Armenians, like a collapsing empire, which is trying to control their failing system. Look at the ongoing genocide in Afghanistan, where also the world is fully aware or could have been aware, and is looking at it silently, and doesn't care.

The Communist system is collapsing, not today or tomorrow, but it is an unraveling process in the entire East bloc which is not going to stop; a similar, although slightly different, process is occurring in mainland China. They are showing all the signs and the symptoms of a collapsing empire, very much like in the last phase of the Roman Empire, trying to play off the minorities against each other and using purges and other cruelties.

The irony is that the West is absolutely not prepared to use this. On the contrary: The Western elites are willing to give world hegemony to Moscow, at a point that nobody who really wants to see it, can overlook all the signs that Moscow is trying to implement the Ogarkov Plan and achieve military superiority very quickly. They are developing a crash program for their version of the SDI. They are developing new weapon systems based on modern physical principles, radio-frequency weapons, electromagnetic pulse weapons. They are training spetsnaz troops so that they either can use this military superiority directly, or use it as a blackmail threat, to squeeze out of the West whatever they like. So the West reacts to this by going for unilateral disarmament, and the media, which are largely Communist subverted, are using this, to spread a Gorbby mania, so that about 80% of the foolish people in the press like Gorbachov and think he is really peace-loving.

The reason why the Western elites are behaving toward this threat in this way, is because of a clear philosophical affinity between the establishments in the East and the West.

Moral and economic crisis in the West

The world has come to this point because of a gigantic moral crisis of the West. It is especially since the last 20 years that this problem seems to have gotten totally out of control. Now, there is a new President in the United States. Tomorrow, there will be a new administration, and they think they have the power, that they are the keepers of the power, that they have the means to solve all of this, but they are sitting in front of the biggest financial crisis, and since they, up to the present, have refused any of the reform proposals we have proposed, this financial system is definitely finished. The U.S. banking system is bankrupt, and the dollar and the entire Western banking system have only been maintained through the brutal looting of the Third World countries and the support of Japan for the U.S. and the Federal Republic of Germany, and so forth. So it will be only a question of time, when the system comes down.

The Anglo-American establishment has made a deal with Moscow to rule the world as a condominium, to have a kind of supranational one world government, global crisis management, and they think they can keep control. But already now it is evident that what is at stake is a huge fight with continental Europe over the question of "Europe 1992," because the new American administration does not intend to share its power with a new independent force in Europe, and we will go into periods of trade war. The fight over agriculture and the campaign against Germany because of the Libyan [chemical weapons] affair which is now threatening the Kohl government, basically shows on what thin ice the West-

This will escalate. If the Kohl government falls—which could happen over the weekend, that is how bad it is—it is absolutely to be expected, that the Soviet Union would not miss the opportunity to offer a new Stalin Note [offering German reunification], and even with Kohl, under the domination of [Foreign Minister Hans-Dietrich] Genscher or a new government dominated by the Social Democrats, which would accept or could accept such a Stalin Note. And if Germany goes, this would mean that all of Western Europe goes. This is what the Bolshevik empire has aimed at ever since Lenin declared: Whoever controls Germany will have Europe, and that is the stepping-stone to world hegemony.

So we are very far down in history. It is not only Western Europe. Look at the situation in China and Southeast Asia. Deng Xiaoping has declared that he has a plan to regain Taiwan by no later than 1990, and basically part of this New Yalta deal between the superpowers is to give control over Southeast Asia to Peking.

So, if this would happen—and we are obviously working to prevent it from happening—Moscow would gain Western Europe and Peking China would gain Southeast Asia, so that basically the United States would be reduced to a relatively third-rate power and the Communists would have world hegemony, as I said, maybe two years or less away.

Would this help the Communist system? I don't think it would. I think the Communist system would continue to collapse, because it is the very nature of this system to destroy the values of Western civilization. It is their explicit aim to destroy the values of Christianity, and with that, the idea of individual creativity.

AIDS: the threat of a Dark Age

In no more than 10 years, the world for sure would look like a nightmare, because it is already now determined that the AIDS epidemic will explode, despite all the cover-ups of the governments today, which, as I said, know what is really at stake, and that this is a killer disease that could potentially wipe out mankind as a whole. This explosion will come very soon, and will have tremendous social consequences; people will be killed because they are suspected to be carriers of the disease, which is already happening here and there right now. We are also investigating hints, which I have to take very seriously, that there are some institutions of the West which are spreading AIDS deliberately in Africa, to further the process of depopulation in this continent.

This all means clearly that the world is on the verge of chaos and a Dark Age, which makes the 14th century look relatively mild by comparison.

How insane the present elites have become is illustrated, among other things, by an article in the Economist of this week, which seriously proposes to rehabilitate certain historical figures and periods, like the Dark Ages of the 14th century, and to glorify these periods as being stronger and more beautiful than the Renaissance.

So, if the world comes to this point, that we will plunge into a Dark Age, either of the kind of one world dictatorship that some elites are aiming at, or a world under Communist hegemony, then you have to know one thing: All of this is the result of a deliberate policy. It is not a natural catastrophe; it is the result of concrete political acts. It is what the Pope has called the “structures of sin,” which exist equally in the East and in the West. That the world is in such a tremendous misery is the result of the acts of concrete individuals.

Our fight for a new world economic order

I want to tell you a couple of things about how it comes that our organization has developed relatively great knowledge about who is responsible. It is not some academic discovery, but it is the result of the fact that for 15 years, we have been fighting for a just new world economic order.

Lyndon LaRouche has developed concrete proposals for such economic reform, and when we, beginning relatively naively and innocently, started to organize for the implementation of these programs, we were hit with an enormous amount of counterattack, and we found out that there is an enormous amount of harassment against countries—countries are being threatened with extinction—against individuals threatened with death or torture, or other unfortunate developments. Because we did not give up in all of this fight, we learned a lot about the nature of the enemy. We found out, for example, something which may be a surprise to many people: that the genocide lobby exists in the form of concrete associations and people.

So when we, at the end of these two days, will put these people in front of the tribunal, this is not abstract or academic knowledge but it is the result of a 15-year political fight. For example, when Lyndon LaRouche developed for the first time in 1974 the proposal to develop Africa—infrastructure, industrialization of agriculture, industrialization together with a report that if these measures were not taken in a period of 10-15 years, the black African continent would reach a point of irreversible ecological holocaust. We found out that people already then said that Africa should die. We did not know, and Lyn did not know obviously, what would be the irreversible aspect, because we did not anticipate a specific form of AIDS. But it was a correct analysis up to that point.

Then the next major step in this development was that Lyndon LaRouche in 1975 developed a concrete proposal for international monetary reform, which he called at that time the International Development Bank, which became extremely influential in the discussions of the Non-Aligned Movement and was introduced by the then-Foreign Minister of Guyana, Fred Wills, in front of the General Assembly of the United Nations in September 1976.

We saw what happened to those leaders of the Third World who came out and fought for this. Pakistan's Bhutto was killed in 1979 because he demanded an international debt reorganization; Mrs. Gandhi, who was fighting for the same thing, was killed in 1984; and many many other governments were destabilized, leaders were purged, harassed, put in prison. We know that the food weapon was used many, many times, because most of these countries have only food reserves for three days or one week, and we know the names of the individuals from the banks who went to these countries and said, if you do not quit the fight for the new world economic order, you will be destabilized and credits will be cut off. Riots will be the result in your country, and you will be toppled.

We have watched what the IMF conditionalities have done in these 15 years. Entire countries have been dismantled in front of the eyes of the world public. For example the beautiful nation of Mexico, which was economically struggling 10-15 years ago, was literally taken apart step by step, with absolute brutality. The nation of Uganda practically no longer exists. If you look at Lebanon, since 1975, this nation has been completely bombed out, destroyed. It does not exist any more.

The genocide lobby

We have found out, step by step, who is behind this. The Club of Rome, at a certain point in 1972, started to propagandize their zero economic growth policy of neo-malthusianism, that the world does not have enough food for the number of people. We came upon such institutions as the Worldwatch Institute, which is supervising a lot of this. We found individuals like the Satanist Robert McNamara, who has a long list of crimes. He was responsible in Vietnam for the body-count policy. He's a lunatic, quite literally, because he goes out when there is a full Moon, to bathe in the moonbeams. This is part of his belief-structure. But the other side is the genocide he committed when he was head of the World Bank. We have heard circles around Gen. Maxwell Taylor, also of Vietnam fame, who said quite openly that they want to increase the death rate by natural means, because birth control is not sufficient. We have found circles around George Ball, who have openly said that it is necessary to reduce the Mexican population to 30 million people, i.e., less than half. We heard the speech of Gore Vidal in São Paulo last year, who said that the AIDS pandemic is a good thing, because it will reduce the population to 1 billion people.

And we have seen, what was the long-term design of people like Dr. Alexander King, who was the one responsible in 1963 for introducing the so-called education reform in Europe, which had the deliberate aim of eliminating for pupils any knowledge of the high points of the 2,000 years of European culture and civilization. This same Dr. Alexander King was the leader of the Club of Rome, and is on record having said that population growth in the Third World has to stop, because the Anglo-Saxon white race is overrun by the black, brown, and yellow people.

We are on the track of the Inter-Action Council, which wants to reduce the population to 2 billion, because otherwise the global crisis is not feasible.

In the course of this, we founded the Club of Life, against the evil activities of the Club of Rome, and as a result of our organizing for the sanctity and sacredness of life, we found out even more about these people. We discovered an incredible new euthanasia campaign, and propaganda that health care would not be cost-effective. So we found out about many more concrete persons, and also about the nature of the enemy. We found out how the financial institutions of this world are responsible, and how they are controlled by certain families, and that the reason for all of these problems is what you could call a plutocracy, a government of a financial power elite. This is an extreme Calvinist view, of those who think that God punishes those who are poor, and that those who are rich are already proven to be correct by the very fact of their wealth.

The Holy Alliance and the Yalta policy

Soon we found out that what motivates these people is, in part, the political system modeled on the Holy Alliance concluded at the Congress of Vienna of 1815, where the idea of having Russia as a special policeman of Europe was copied from. We found that the proponents of this system liked the idea of balance of power, crisis management, that they are against the sovereignty of the nation-state, and that they want to reintroduce a so-called Ständestaat, a class system, with lower and higher classes, where the lower ones have no rights—i.e., you go back before the Prussian reforms.

In the 20th century, there is a continuity of this in the form of the Yalta treason, which also has to be looked at as one of the great crimes of our time. In 1943, there was the division of Europe, without real need. There was no necessity to give half of Europe to the Russians, to the Communists. This, as you know, was already decided in 1943, and the process of Teheran, Yalta, and Potsdam just concluded this agreement. This Yalta treason was continued in 1943 by the freemason George Marshall, who gave China to Mao Zedong, at a point that the Kuomintang had 5 million people under arms. It was the joint action of Moscow and Washington to give mainland China to the Communists. In 1953, during the Korean War, Chiang Kai-shek had offered to send hundreds of thousands of troops to help MacArthur, and the Korean War would have ended quite differently. But this was not in the idea of the balance of power again, so that MacArthur afterward went to Taipei to apologize.

This Yalta policy was continued in 1971, when it was Kissinger who introduced the "China card" policy, and at the same time there was continuous treason against the security of the West, in the form of the Pugwash Conference, the ecology movement, all aimed to undermine the security of the West as an independent culture, a civilization. The peace movement was invented, which has turned out to be nothing but Moscow's fifth column, and if you look at it today, it is run literally by witches, and is the harbor and the water in which terrorists can swim.

Satanism and Friedrich Nietzsche

In all of this, the role of Satanism is not marginal, but, as recent discoveries have shown, the ecology movement is a Satanic movement. The condition of the world, all the misery and all the incredible suffering, could not be explained otherwise, and the major threat to civilization today is nothing but Satanism, which is not called Satanism openly, even though this is becoming more and more public now, but it is generally called the New Age.

I think the key to understanding the threat to mankind today, in the form of Satanism and New Age, it is extremely important to understand both Nietzsche and Aleister Crowley. Nietzsche, who was working for the Devil in the last century definitely, represents a new phase in this, because since his writings, the open, perverted advertisement of Satanism has become a phase shift in history.

The most important points he made are the following. He declared that God is dead, and later he developed out of this, that he himself would be the Anti-Christ and he would be Satan. His aim was to wipe out Christianity and all values associated with it. He, because God is dead, declared that man is not the image of God, but man has to be an aesthetic beast. He continued to rewrite history in emphasizing, not the classical highpoints of history, the classical Greek or the Renaissance, but rather Dionysian ecstasy, Bacchanalian masses walking, marching drunken through the streets, doped up. He emphasized the flagellants in the Middle Ages, and in his ugly book Ecce Homo, he declared: Am I understood? It is Dionysos against the crucified.

He devoted his entire life against Christianity and determined that he wanted to revalue all values into their opposite. This is indeed the essence of the Satanic method: to consciously change values into their opposite in such a way, that people don't realize it in the beginning, but in the end they are in the grip of Satan.

He did not accept the development of the universe to ever higher orders, but announced a cyclical repetition, the eternal return of the same, and therefore destruction for him—as well as for the Greenies today or for the Nazis, which is actually the same thing—destruction is desirable, because only out of the decay, the strong will come, in the opinion of these people, and the natural outgrowth of this is the idea of the master race. The will to power is the only value for these people.

Historically, Nietzsche refers to Dionysius—Bacchus—who was, at a point of Greek history, the cult figure for a cult which centered around wild music, rhythmic dancing and orgiastic ecstasy.

This is all very important, if you compare it with the New Age today.

The aim of this insane ecstasy is the unification with their god, to be possessed, literally. The essence of what is unifying them is their hatred against Christianity, because they see it as a total negation of all earthly pleasures and passions. And we found out that one of the reasons why they hated us so much, is because they always say, you want to take away our pleasures in this way, because you put up moral standards, and we don't like that.

Friedrich Nietzsche, who believed in the superiority of the Devil.

So, both Nietzsche and the freemasons—which is actually one tradition—refer to Greece as a deliberate counterpole against Christianity, and it is also this Dionysian face of Greek history which gave them the arguments for the “master race.” For example, Theognis of Megara already had the idea that the aristocratic is good and the plebian is bad. If you read Plato's dialogues, you find with the Meno, that Thrasymachos and Callicles emphasize the exercise of power as the essence of all virtues. Thrasymachos says that powerful evil is more noble than weak goodness, and Callicles says the stronger ones have the right to dominate and also have property, and the weak ones have none. Dionysius said, what is the essence for him is rageful lust, which is at the same time the fury of destruction. Indeed you will find, that rage is the emotion of Satan, in the same way that agapē, caritas, or love is the emotion of Christianity.

The concept of the eternal return of the same, which is a pre-Christian cult notion, associated with the earth goddesses, mother goddesses, is also the ground for the idea of reincarnation, the concept used deliberately against the idea of immortality. The Nietzschean fascists, the New Age proponents, believe that immortality or the belief in immortality is the basic obstacle to real life. Nietzsche finally wrote Thus Spake Zarathustra, where he declared that all gods are dead, now lives the superman, der Übermensch. Superman is the meaning of the world—no god, rather master your own fate, rather be god yourself. So, the idea of Satanism is nothing but self-deification, and for these people, Christian ennoblement is only castration.

For Nietzsche, God is proven wrong, but not the Devil. In Will to Power, he writes, to be able to bear life without

God and morality, he must find the opposite, the ego which creates its own god, at whose feet all men lie. This god is nothing but the culmination of power, the liberation of all morality, the full depths of all contradictions of life lived out to the excess. God for him is the greatest immoralist, as will to power without goodness and wisdom. So, Nietzsche believed in superiority of the Devil; quite literally, he was a Satanist. He believed in the Olympus, i.e., the power of man totally dedicated to this Earth, but not in the Crucified. So, Dionysius, whom Nietzsche believed to be finally he himself, is the god of darkness, and Zarathustra admits that the good ones would call his superman the Devil.

So what we are really dealing with, is the Satanic religion, in their hatred for Christianity, for those reasons. All of this, the Nietzschean philosophy, was the ethic of the inner core of the SS and the Nazis, and it is exactly the problem today, that the elites think they want power only for power's sake, and it is their absolute right to keep that power, no matter what will happen to this poor world. It is no question that these people are under the influence of gigantic illusions, and it is also clear that they are either part of Satanist rituals and circles, or at least they tolerate it.

The Age of Aquarius

We have noticed, that for the past one or two years, the so-called New Age has been on an aggressive offensive worldwide, and if you look at the symptoms, you can actually see that it is an attempt to win over the world for good, and to wipe out Christianity once and for all. Normally people are not accustomed to look at it this way, but if you start to sharpen your eyes, you actually see symptoms of it at every point. For example, you all know that there are hardly any young people who are not victims of rock music, and all major rock bands are Satanist. Not only do they have Satanist texts, not only do they have subliminal messages and light-effects with pictures of Satan or symbols, but it is having a serious effect on the brains and the capability to think of these young people.

One can say that rock music is the first level of initiation, and that then drugs, pornography, and general disruption of any moral standard are the next steps. So, if you go through this and you don't watch it, what comes out are people without souls, and it is most horrifying to see that already in all of Western Europe, 80-85% of all young people have participated in occult exercises, which starts like a game, but then soon it is not a game any more. There are many Satanic churches, not only in Turin, where 5% of the people admit that they are Satanists. It is the famous Ordo Templi Orientis which is definitely one of the leading instruments. It is a lot of masonic rites, it is the spread of pedophilia, child-pornography rings, video cassettes of unimaginable perversion, and finally the more frequently occurring ritual murders.

While Nietzsche definitively is the philosopher for the power elites, Aleister Crowley is the one who gives the philosophy for the duped masses. Do what you want, this is the only law: that was the philosophy of Aleister Crowley, and this is the poison in the hearts and minds of the people thinking they can take drugs, they can do anything just as they please.

One has to see that the Age of Aquarius, the New Age, as it was propagandized by Marilyn Ferguson, is actually the new form of this disease. The aim is to eliminate any principle, there is no longer any criterion for good and evil. And one has to understand that the New Age has a lot of different elements, like homosexuality, which is an organized cult. Nobody can tell me that 50% of the people in Manhattan all had domineering mothers who give them no other way than to join this. It is an organizing tool: Get people involved, and once they are involved, they can't get out so easily. It is witchcraft, the ecology movement, the idea that some mysterious earth goddess exists. It is drugs, it is astrology, it is pantheism; basically all of the components of the New Age represent an attack on rationality, on reason, on natural science, on the idea of the knowability of the laws of the universe.

So, we have found that one of the key coordinating centers of all of this is a thing called the Lucis Trust, formerly the Lucifer organization, which is a kind of umbrella sponsoring all of these different things. Associated with this are the United Nations, the World Council of Churches, the Club of Rome, the Trilateral Commission, the Rockefeller Foundation, the World Wildlife Fund, and many more.

If you look at this, the big question obviously is, how to reverse it? It is obviously a subject which is not an easy one, and many people say it is dangerous even to talk about it, but if we do not warn our young people, the next generation and the many moral people who are just indifferent, who don't care, we'll eventually be taken over.

So therefore, the first step is to make a huge campaign to expose what is really behind the New Age, and we will name the names of those who have put themselves in the service of Satan, and we will put on their forehead the Mark of the Beast, because it is our obligation to fight for the superiority of man in the image of God. We do this, because we have the confidence that mankind has the resources to overcome this crisis, as mankind came out of the 14th-century Dark Age and superseded it with the golden Renaissance. Today, by awakening people and making them conscious of this danger, we will also be able to make a new cultural and moral Renaissance, and we want to announce it optimistically, but also offensively at the same time, that no matter what the enemy is planning, we will make sure, that one way or the other, the ideas and programs of Lyndon LaRouche will be realized.

We want to announce this campaign, for which Lyn has correctly given the slogan some time ago: to do nothing less than to kill Satan.

I want to end my remarks by saying, so help us God through our arm, and I am confident that Christ will be victorious over Satan!
